

USING THE INDEX

I have indexed the names of all the Stockdens their relatives where shown and a few of their employers where it contributes to the overall picture of the Stockden history during the past two hundred and fifty years. All the Stockden daughters are also listed under their married names to enable the reader to find them more easily.

There are, of course many common surnames amongst the associated families. Consequently, the names listed under 'Jones', for example, are not necessarily all members of the same family. I have excluded names of Doctors, Registrars and Ministers of the church who are named in BDM's since all of these people can be accounted for in publications relating to their respective lines of work. Similarly Marriage Witnesses can also be found in the 'UK Marriage Witness Index' available at any Genealogy BBS and on Internet. Names in the BDM's have also been excluded from the index because they are indexes in themselves.

Enjoy the book and if you find the connection to a Stockden who might be the father of Richard who married in 1741 then let me know.....

NAMES are in alphabetical order 'Surnames' are capitalised for easy finding : and against each 'forename' are page numbers which indicate where the person you seek can be found.
