

The STOCKDEN FAMILY HISTORY 1741 – 1997

2014 Update : Corrections and additions: 10 Jul 2014

In February this year after a tip off from Dennis STOCKDEN that there was more information to be found on the Internet concerning STOCKDEN in Canada, I also did a search and found the following on a website that covered gravestones. The contributor is, unfortunately, the volunteer photographer and has no knowledge of the families related to the gravestones that she photographs. The following photographs were contributed on 8 Jan 2013.

STOCKDEN	Frank Charles	1882-1961

The website also gave the information below. The first three names were on a Norwegian line immigration ship the SS “Lake Erie”, arriving in Canada in 1904. The last named – Frederick STOCKDEN – was on the “Empress of Ireland” arriving in Canada in 1910. The Nanaimo Family History Society (Vancouver Island) also gave these four names but appeared to indicate that they went to Saskatchewan. My searches did not find any further information at that time.

Stockden, Alice	26 England	July 22, 1904	Lake Erie	003-003 T-483
Stockden, Ellen	30 England	July 22, 1904	Lake Erie	003-003 T-483
Stockden, Frank	21 England	July 22, 1904	Lake Erie	003-003 T-483
Stockden, Frederick	23 England	13 May, 1910	Empress of Ireland	035-035 T-4765

This abbreviated listing gives us enough information to identify:

Frederick Charles STOCKDEN: Born in Thornbury, Gloucestershire, England, 3 March 1887, to Uriah (1843 – 1917) and Louisa (nee WALL) STOCKDEN.

Frank STOCKDEN: Born at 5 Myvart Street, Bristol, England, 25 August 1882, to Thomas Wall (1852 – 1884) and Ellen Jane (nee STICKLER) STOCKDEN.

Query given ages of :

The STOCKDEN FAMILY HISTORY 1741-1997

Alice STOCKDEN: An Alice Ann STOCKDEN born in parish of St George, Bristol, England, 1883, daughter of Thomas and Ellen Jane STOCKDEN: Could be Frank's sister but should be 22 years of age, not 26 years.

Ellen STOCKDEN: I cannot identify an Ellen STOCKDEN aged 30 yrs in 1904.

Other information, on the Internet Website visited concerning STOCKDEN, revealed that there was :

226 Birth records : 269 Family Tree records: 166 Death and Burial records:

175 Marriage and Divorce records: 442 Census records: and
5 Immigration and Newspaper articles.

In all, a total of 1283 records for STOCKDEN.

I have not found a 'divorce' list so that would be interesting to visit.

The travels of a large number of other STOCKDEN were also listed. These referred to Wyatt STOCKDEN from Gympie, Brisbane, QLD, Australia and his daughter Louisa Ethel STOCKDEN. A reference of "Master A G STOCKDEN" is odd. Identification is difficult because of the lack of dates in the Internet pages that I was on. There was an Ava G STOCKDEN born about 1910. She was known as "Harvey", perhaps the details taken by the Internet 'twisted' the information in error. An "Ida STOCKDEN" of South Africa must be Ida Victoria (nee TAYLOR) STOCKDEN, wife of Herbert John (1878) STOCKDEN. They are both buried at St John's Church, Mooi River, Natal Midlands, South Africa. This is confirmed by Anthony STOCKDEN, grandson. There were so few STOCKDEN about but errors were still made in the records.

Another record found but leading to nowhere was of the "SS Tunisian" passengers in 1910. One passenger was a Sidney George (1878) STOCKDEN, arrived in Portland, Maine, USA, destination on the document is not clear, but probably Canada.

Continuing the 'Gravestones' search I then found a website in South Africa that gave me recent births, deaths and marriages. See MARRIAGES:

Whilst in Swansea in March I had a quick visit to the Records Office there. By the time I found my way into the search program time was flying by. But I found the marriages records for Glamorgan. Very odd why it gave me the STOCKDEN records only for Glamorgan, but it appears there are many listed which are not, at least, were not in the PRO when I did my original search. These will eventually be inserted into the PRO marriages list and replaced on the website.

I recently received family updates from Jean (nee STOCKDEN) WALTON (1928) in the UK and from Karen STOCKDEN in Perth, Australia, thank you both. These had quite a bit of information which I have listed under the following B, D, M sections. As time goes by I have to rely on information from the families as it may not be distributed to the Record Offices very quickly for me to find.
