These family trees have been added to my Web site because my Aunt Minnie (1888-1938) married into the family in 1912. Curious as it may seem, I cannot recall ever meeting any of the DISS family members during my time in Halstead (1933 to 1951) when I left to serve five years in the Royal Air Force. As I married in 1956 I then remained in Cheltenham to this day.

The DISS Family Trees are listed by birth year of the named person. There are many more DISS in Essex than in these pages. If and where they fit in with the Halstead DISS families I know not. Those I found are listed in the B, D, M's section of The DISS pages of the website. One DISS contact made since my website came on line lives in Barrow in Furness, Cumbria.
